Trainer Expression of Interest

Our ethos is to support and strengthen the sector by bringing people together. We will connect expert trainers with those who need the training, making use of available venues, resulting in cost effective training. Everyone benefits. We will utilise our online booking facility to streamline the process and promote to our 24,000 plus contacts across all our communication channels.

This form serves as an expression of interest for you to specifically detail your services for our consideration. It is your responsibility as the trainer to define what the training will be, so please be very clear about what you will deliver and the cost to do so.

Please complete the form below and thank you for offering your training expertise to benefit NoOffence! and our wider network.
